

Are you a cross-border worker?

 From now on, you can participate in the municipality where you work.

Get involved and become a member of the municipal commission for intercultural living together.

For more information contact your local administration.

